Maria Grazia Panunzi is the President of the non-governmental organization the Italian Association for Women in Development (AIDOS); she is a member of the board of the Italian Network on Global Health and of the coordination of the Italian Coalition Against Poverty (GCAP) Italy. Since 1997, she has been working with AIDOS as coordinator of development and advocacy projects for women’s entrepreneurship, women’s reproductive health, gender-based violence, female child education, in the Middle East (Jordan, Syria), in Latin America (Venezuela), in Asia (Nepal, India), in Africa (Tanzania) and in Russia. Before joining AIDOS, Maria Grazia worked for 10 years with other civil society organizations and networks. She holds a university degree in political sciences. She is expert on gender issues and women’s and girls rights and she collaborates with international and Italian networks in particular in the framework of processes on the women’s rights: CSW, CEDAW, CPD, HRC.