Stefania Burbo has been working as focal point and advocacy officer for the Global Health Italian Network since 2004. The network is composed of eleven civil society organizations promoting the right to health, focusing on countries with greater difficulty in accessing health care.

She has been Co-Spokesperson of GCAP - Global Call to Action against Poverty Italy since 2017. The Coalition is an expression of the world’s largest civil society movement, calling for an end to poverty and inequality, promoting the adoption of sustainable policies respecting human rights, dignity, gender equality, social and environmental justice, in the framework of the 2030 Agenda. GCAP Italy is a key interlocutor for Italian institutions on G7/G20 processes, as well as for the 2030 Agenda debate.

She has been appointed Chair of the Civil 20 (C20) in 2021, as well as national coordinator of its Global Health Working Group.

Stefania Burbo graduated with a degree in Political Science and has been working in the International Cooperation field since 1997. She began working in Sub-Saharan Africa, within both development and emergency projects.
