Riccardo Moro is the Civil 20 Sherpa. He has a long experience in civil society organizations and networks, that started as one of the coordinators of the Italian Jubilee Debt Campaign in the late ‘90s. He was the Director of the Justice and Solidarity Foundation and one of the co-spokespersons of GCAP Italy. Until 2020 he served as Global Chair of GCAP, the Global Call for Action against Poverty, one of the widest civil society networks in the world, dealing with the Agenda 2030, with a special focus on poverty and inequalities.

From 2013 to 2019, representing the Italian Government, he worked in Peru as Executive Director of the Italy-Peru Debt Swap Fund, which funded more than 300 development projects implemented by civil society organizations and public institutions to promote sustainable development in the country.

He teaches Development Policies at the University of Milan and has been a lecturer in international politics and economics at several universities and institutions in Africa and Latin America.
